

Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in applying to the Riverbay Corporation for an apartment in Co-op City, a serene, park-like residential community located in the Baychester section of the Bronx, N.Y., and served by zip code 10475. The development is owned and managed by Riverbay Corporation.

Co-op City is part of the Mitchell-Lama housing program, a limited-equity housing development offering affordable apartments for sale at a below market rate price. When an apartment becomes vacant, it is returned to the corporation to be sold to another applicant from the waiting list. Monthly carrying charges are very affordable and include all utilities (heating, cooling, water and electricity). Approved shareholders must meet certain credit, family composition and income criteria.

An application form, which is required at the time of your interview, must be filled out to apply for a residential cooperative unit at Co-op City. You may complete the application form available here on the website and/or print it on LEGAL size paper. The completed application must be returned by mail to the Residential Sales Office, 2057A Bartow Avenue, Bronx, NY 10475, OR by dropping it in the carrying charge box located in the Administration Building at 2049 Bartow Avenue, Bronx, NY 10475. Please note: A non-refundable $75.00 application fee (money order/certified bank check only) must accompany the application form. The balance of required fees will be requested approximately 90 days prior to an apartment becoming available when processing of your application will be completed. This will include running your credit report, income verification, criminal background check, property owner information and scheduling of an in-home visit. You will be required to update your application and provide current information at this point. Once an apartment preference is declared, it can ONLY be changed for increase or decrease in family size, without incurring a penalty. However, additional application processing fees may apply.

Riverbay Corporation provides reasonable accommodations to persons with disabilities, as required by law. In addition, Riverbay also complies with an amendment to Section 31 of the Private Housing Finance Law, which requires housing companies to give preference in admission to veterans as defined in Section 85 of the Civil Service Law.

Please read this application in its entirety to fully understand the application process as well as the development to which you are applying for residence. You must sign and notarize (page 8) of the application. Additionally, there are a number of documents that must be provided at the time of your interview. A letter requesting these documents will be forwarded to you at a later date.

See page 2 for the required documents and NON-REFUNDABLE fee information.

Please contact the Residential Sales Office at the number listed above with any questions regarding this application.

APPLICATION FORM

See page 5 for the application for a one, two or three-bedroom apartment. Be sure to read the application in its entirety before signing and notarizing these documents. Please take note of the following:

- Applications are accepted and placed on a waiting list. Your application is assigned an application number that is included on a waitlist until it is your turn to be processed. Please note that there are no apartments available on an immediate basis. Approximately 90 days prior to an apartment becoming available, you will be contacted by a residential sales agent for your payment of the balance of fees outlined on the previous page.
- All applicants are subject to credit investigation at the time of processing. Riverbay Corporation requires a FICO credit score of 650 or greater. Applicants with a credit score below 650 will be denied. If you are not sure about your FICO credit score, you are encouraged to obtain your own credit report and FICO score at www.myfico.com prior to paying the additional fees associated with this application.
- In the event you have no credit score because you have not established a credit history, your application will be considered providing you can demonstrate that you have paid other bills on a consistent basis. For this purpose, we will consider gas and electric bills, cable bills, telephone bills, current landlord verification, etc.
- All applicants, co-applicants and proposed occupants (age 18 or older) will be subject to criminal investigation. The cost of these investigations is the responsibility of the applicant and must be paid when contacted as indicated on the previous page. Should your application be denied based upon the results of the criminal investigation for you or anyone listed on your application, none of the fees assessed will be refunded as they are NON-REFUNDABLE.
- Any applicants, co-applicant or proposed occupant with a criminal conviction for producing methamphetamine in the home or who is legally required to be a lifetime registrant on the state sex offender registry will result in the application being denied. If a criminal conviction or arrest is still pending that involved physical violence to persons or property or which affected the health, safety and welfare of others, then Riverbay will make an individual assessment for each applicant which may include such factors as (a) seriousness of the crime, (b) time elapsed since the offence, (c) age of the person at the time of the crime (d) evidence of the person's rehabilitation and (e) whether they are an actual danger to their neighbors.
- A home visit at your current residence will be conducted by an independent investigative company and a resulting report will be forwarded to Riverbay Corporation. Should this home visit result in denial of your application, all fees paid in connection with the processing of this application are NON-REFUNDABLE.
- All applications are subject to review for eligibility under the rules and regulations established by Riverbay Corporation, with the approval of the commissioner of the New York State Division of Housing and Community Renewal. Riverbay adheres to New York State Rules and Regulations, section 1727-1.3(F) which states, “Eligible applicants shall be given one right of refusal of an apartment without prejudice to their standing on the waiting list. A second refusal shall result in their removal from the waiting list.”

• Apartment Selection: Applicants will be allowed to specify the section(s) they are interested in, but cannot limit their selection to a particular building(s). Applicants may also specify if they wish to live on either high or low floors, but cannot choose a specific floor.

• Accordingly, applicants may indicate preferences, for a specific apartment size, a particular section of the complex, or for a higher or lower floor, at the time of their application. However, any changes in preferences after their application is submitted, but prior to an apartment being offered, will result in their application being placed in line with the date of their application, on the waiting list which reflects the new preference.
